

A Prayer of Wisdom For Your Child

---

Dear Father,

I thank you for the children you have blessed me with. I pray that you will fill my children's heart with your wisdom. Thank you, Father because the wisdom that comes from you is a gift to my children and you bestow it on them generously.

I declare that my children's ears are attentive to God's wisdom and his wisdom dwells in the deepest parts of their heart and mind. I declare that this wisdom that God gives is a close friend to my children. My children have wisdom and understanding. They will embrace and listen to God's wisdom, that they may always do that which is just, right, and fair.

I declare that their hearts are trained to listen to your wisdom. Their spirits are open wide to always discern between good and evil. I thank you Lord that my children will take advantage of your storehouse of wisdom to guide their daily affairs and lead them in paths of righteousness and greatness.

Thank you father, for winning their hearts over with your wisdom and causing your revelation to break forth in their hearts on a daily basis. May your wisdom always empower my children to make wise choices and the right decisions as you lead them into their God ordained destiny.

I pray Lord that your wisdom will protect my children from making poor choices. Your wisdom at work in the life of my children will rescue them from every evil in disguise and lead them away from wicked and deceitful men.

I declare that my children will never lose sight of wisdom and discretion as they journey through life. Indeed, your precious Holy Spirit will cause my children to walk in godly wisdom all the days of their lives. God's wisdom will empower and strengthen them from inside out and always inspire them to do what is right every single day.

I declare that my children will listen to wisdom's voice and will not stubbornly demand their own way. They live their lives by wisdom's insight and wisdom's glory has wrapped itself around them. They will embrace wisdom's ways and God's wisdom will always point them in the path of integrity.

Thank you, father, because my children will never walk away from your wisdom. Rather, your wisdom will increase in their lives daily. Your wisdom will guard their lives and exalt them. Your wisdom will adorn them with beauty and grace. Your wisdom will bless them and cause them to stand out in their generation. Your wisdom will prosper and elevate them to positions of grace and honor. Amen!